Spearheading the selections for the C.C. Winn Lady Mavericks selections was four year standout senior shortstop Cassandra Flores who was selected the District 29-5A's Co-Most Valuable Player along with Denise Longoria from Uvalde. Earning a berth on the elite all-district first team were outdieder Yazmin Martinez and third baseman Daniela Rodriguez. Selected to the all-district second team were standout pitcher Marychelo Flores, catcher Briana Soto, outfielder Ariana Soto, outfielder Martha Garcia and second baseman Anissa Garcia. Voted to the honorable mention list were pitcher Connie Hernandez and outfielder Jasmin Ballones. Earning a berth on the prestigious all-academic team were Marychelo Flores and Kiana Diaz.

Eagle Pass Sports Central congratulates each of these C.C. Winn Lady Mavericks varsity softball players on your most deserving honor in being selected to the 2017 District 29-5A all-district softball team and wishes each of you continued success. Thank each of you for being Ambassadors of Goodwill for the City of Eagle Pass, Texas and great role models for the youth of our community.
