the final score of 41to 9.

After a surprisingly scoreless first quarter of play one in which each team was forced to punt on their respective four first quarter possessions, the Eagles stingy defense set up the first touchdown of the game when defensive back Raul Lechler intercepted an LBJ pass attempt at the Laredo LBJ 31 yard line. The Eagles offense with their standout running back Dee Andre Torres forced to take over the signal calling duties from starting quarterback Richie Luna who suffered a leg injury during the first offensive series of the first quarter. The Eagles offense capitalized on the turnover capping off the 31yard scoring drive with a five yard scamper into the end zone by slot back Jose Riojas with 4:09 left in the second period. Jose Riojas tacked on the point after to give the Eagles a 7to 0 lead over the Wolves.

Late in the first half the Eagles offense coughed up the pig skin deep in their own territory with the Wolves recovering the errant pig skin at the Eagle Pass 13 yard line but the Eagles defense stood their ground and forced the Wolves to settle for a 26 yard field goal by placekicker Gabriel Garcia with only four seconds left before halftime.

The Eagles received the second half kickoff and immediately unleashed a potent offensive assault through the ground and via the airway as they extended their lead with a four play 70 yard scoring drive culminating with a 37 yard keeper to pay dirt by quarterback Dee Andre Torres with 10:34 showing on the third quarter clock. Jose Riojas split the uprights with the point after to give the Eagles a 14 to 3 lead in this game.
