receiving corps will showcase Ethan Waldrum #10 as the Wing Back a quick and shifty player who will be their deep threat and also has been used as a ball carrier on some plays, Afernee Reyes #7 as their X-Receiver a tall receiver that likes to be isolated, sophomore Joe Cruz #12 as the Z-Receiver their tallest and most targeted receiver, Josiah Marquez #80 as the tight end but mostly stays in and blocks.

The Pearsall offensive line will be comprised by Abraham Ortiz #77 at left tackle who is their biggest offensive lineman, Marcos Salazar #52 at left guard, Kollin Meeks #50 at center, Sway Zavala #51 at right guard and Ruben Barrera #78 their best and strongest offensive lineman at right tackle who will flip flop positions on the front line.

The home standing C.C. Winn Mavericks sporting a season record of 1-2 will enter this game ready to get their running game untracked with the backfield trio of quarterback Ethan Johnston and running backs Ethan Cazares and JP Ramos ready to tote the pigskin to the promise land behind the blocking of the Mavericks big and experienced offensive line. Look for the Mavericks to employ their short to intermediate passing game to compliment their power running game with wide receivers Ernesto Vasquez, Michael Olivo, Mathew De Alba and Joe Garza ready to haul in the airmail to take it all the way to pay dirt.

The Mavericks offensive line will certainly need to dominate the line of scrimmage to control the tempo and to unleash their patented running game loose into the Pearsall secondary and on their way to pay dirt.

Defensively the Mavericks stingy, quick pursuing and hard hitting crew who never back down from any challenges are armed and ready to nullify the Pearsall running game with the front six of Jose Hinojosa, Isaias Flores, Alejandro Ontiveros, Jose Anzures and their line backing duo of Jared Roiz their leading tackler and Chris Alex Garcia setting their sights on dominating the line of scrimmage and inflict their bone rattling tackles. The Mavericks secondary unit will be expected to provide the run support against the Pearsall Mavericks predominately ground
