The much anticipated and long awaited announcement of the University Interscholastic League new realignment came out of the offices at Region 20 in San Antonio, Texas bright an early on Monday, February 3, 2020. The new realignment saw few if any changes to some of the districts while others did receive some not expected shocking changes which caused the Texas High School head football coaches from Class A to Class 6A to scramble around to complete their respective 2020 non-district portions of their schedule.

On the local front C.C. Winn Mavericks had football coach Eric Vilasenor informed Eagle Pass Sports

Eagle Pass Eagles head football coach Tom Gonzalez informed Eagle Pass Sports Central that he was clearly not surprised at all by the outcome of the realignment even after hearing the rumors coming from the abundance of Saturday morning coffee quarterback clubs as well as the famed Club de Las Viboras having predicated that the Eagles would be realigned to the San Antonio Northside District.

Instead the Eagles will play against the same district opponents but it will be in District 30-6A to tangle with the likes of Del Rio, Laredo Nixon, Laredo Alexander, Laredo LBJ, Laredo United and Laredo United South for the district title.

In their non-district schedule the Eagles will face off against San Antonio Southside, San Antonio John Marshall, C.C. Winn, and Marble Falls.

Eagle Pass Sports Central certainly wish the C.C. Winn Mavericks and Eagle Pass Eagles the very best of luck in your respective upcoming high school football season and invite the entire community of Eagle Pass, Texas as well as the famed Maverick Nation as well as the Loyal Legion of Eagles faithful to get your season tickets as soon as they come up on sale and get ready for some upcoming thrilling upcoming high school football.
