The District 29-6A co-champion, bi-district champion and area finalists Eagle Pass Eagles placed 10 players on the elite first team all district list, six player on the second team all-district list and eight players on the honorable mention squad. But spearheading the all-district team selections were standout senior running back Dee Andre Torres who was voted the 2017 District 29-6A Most Valuable Offensive Player of the Year and teammate stellar defensive tackle Sebastian Hernandez who was voted the 2017 Most Valuable Defensive Player of the Year. Eagles head football coach Tom Gonzalez was voted the District 29-A Coach of the Year. The Eagles had two players selected unanimously to the all-district first team squad which were defensive end Moi Rocha and defensive cornerback Josh Monsivais.

Eagle Pass Sports Central congratulates all of the Eagle Pass Eagles varsity football players on your most deserving honor in being that selected to the 2017 all-district squad and wish each of you continued success.
