The Lady Eagles culminated play at the Smithson Valley Invitational Softball Tourney with three wins and two losses. Over all the Lady Eagles showed a few bright spots while at the same time several aspects of the game still need much work in order to get ready for district play but that is what tournaments are for getting quality playing time to all of their players on the roster to see how they perform under live action conditions against quality opposition.

The top four batters in the perennially potent Lady Eagles lineup of Leslie Martinez, the power hitting duo of standout catcher Brooke Diaz and stellar third baseman Alex Martinez who blasted the only homerun for the Lady Eagles during this tournament along with Lorelei Morales did the majority of the offensive production during the tournament with all four batters connecting with solid hits which drove in vital runs as well as Lashay Reyes who is surprisingly batting seventh in their lineup as well as standout starting pitcher Kaitlin Galvan who helped out her own cause at the plate with productive times at bat to drive in key runs..

The three year standout first team all-district selection starting pitcher Kaitlin Galvan was in near mid-season form as she was very solid inside the circle winning a pair of games and easily should have been three if not for four costly fielding and throwing errors as well as let's just say a not so good of a showing by the Lady Eagles relief pitching corps who were roughed up to the tune of 15 runs allowed on 18 base hits and issued several base on balls in just three innings of work inside the circle. . Young pitcher Iliana Luna earned the other tournament victory via a 10 to 0 three inning shutout against the Smithson Valley JV squad
